Calcutta, 28th August.—There has been a loss of life. It is impossible to ascertain the exact number of deaths at present.
The number quoted by the Revd. Mr.
H. J. is 100. It is ludicrous. At first the officials said that not even a single life had been lost.
Now they say that a number of dead bodies have drifted down the river. Some hundreds have been
